1980 Annual Report

Town of

Bethlehem, New Hampshire

DEDICATED TO
HAROLD AND HATTIE WHITCOMB TAYLOR

Harold and Hattie Whitcomb Taylor were born, raised, and lived all their lives in Bethlehem. They celebrated their 61st Wedding Anniversary in October, 1980. For many years Hattie has been Town Historian, and whenever anyone has a question about Town or family history, she usually has the answer. She has always been a loyal and active member of the Durrell Memorial Methodist Church.

Harold was very active in Town affairs, serving in the Fire and Police Departments and as custodian of the Municipal Building and Post Office. A lifelong band enthusiast, Harold played in area bands for many years and started a band of his own during the 1940's.

Harold passed away on January 28, 1981, and Hattie is still in her home on Jefferson Street.

Librarian's Report

It is difficult to sum up in a few words the exciting events of the Library in 1980.

Our circulation of books was up by over 1,200. With the help of a money donation from the Littleton Savings Bank, we were able to purchase a new set of the Encyclopedia Americana. The Craft Guild gave us a check for records and games for the children's room. We also received three memorial gifts, puzzles, games and a few books.

During the year, through the North Country Co-op, three very special programs were presented to the young people of the Northern Communities. In December we presented a doll house and antique doll and toy display. With the help of a giant dragon, who spent the summer in the children's room, a competitive summer reading program took place with a party for the participants at the conclusion, all receiving certificates and book markers.

One book sale was held during the summer. The bookmobile visited us twice, Ivisited their office several times a month carrying arm fulls of books back to our patrons.

Four Trustees volunteered to man the library on Tuesday mornings for two hours. Ruth Miller, Trustee, and our summer vistor, Evelyn Klein, continue to give generously of their time to the library. All are appreciated.

I attended the N.H. State Library Conference in North Conway; two book fairs and several Co-op meetings.

In closing, I want to thank the Trustees, the bookmobile staff, and all my library patrons; both young and older for an interesting year. It was a pleasure to serve you.
